Your Unicorn agency invites you to discover this magnificent villa located in a residential area on the heights of Mersch. Built in 1993, this property offers 340 m² of living space and 528 m² of gross floor area on 9.35 ares of land.

You'll appreciate its vast interior spaces, offering many generously-sized rooms, such as a large living room, a spacious kitchen and 6 comfortable bedrooms. The villa is distinguished by its functional layout, with a bathroom on every floor, including the garden level, for optimum comfort.

The entire house is in excellent condition and has been meticulously maintained, so no major work is required. The solidly built architecture features beautiful terraces that surround the entire house, offering exceptional outdoor spaces to enjoy every moment of the day.

The plot benefits from a privileged environment, with a classified biotope on the neighboring land, ensuring natural preservation of the area with no possibility of construction nearby.

Finally, this villa also offers development potential: an additional room on the garden level, currently integrated into the garage, could be converted into a bedroom. The attic could also be used as an office.
